Eating Disorder Network of Central Florida

EDNCF

A not-for-profit professional and educational organization focused on the diagnosis and treatment of people with eating disorders.

The Eating Disorder Network of Central Florida is:

- Multidisciplinary – Research shows that the most effective treatment for disordered eating includes a treatment team that includes a variety of healthcare providers. Our membership includes physicians, dietitians, social workers, mental health counselors, marriage and family therapists, and psychologists dedicated to the effective treatment of those with eating disorders.
- Collaborative – the Network is strongly committed to the professional development of its members via leadership positions, peer support, and referral opportunities in the treatment of those with eating disorders.

- Educational - Members benefit from educational opportunities, case consultations, and list serves to increase professional awareness and competencies in the treatment of those with eating disorders.
- Community-focused – the Network strives to increase community awareness to allow for the early detection and treatment of eating disorders.
- Non-profit – EDNCF is supported solely on membership dues and private/business donations.

Membership in the Eating Disorder Network of Central Florida includes:

- Participation in quarterly educational presentations and meetings
- Listing in the EDNCF membership directory and on the EDNCF website referral page
- Participation in the EDNCF list serves
- Regular case consultation meetings
- Networking with other professionals treating those with eating disorders
